Form CRS Customer Relationship Summary

Introduction

LBMC Investment Advisors, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Investment Adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ among firms, and it is important for you to understand the differences. The SEC offers free and simple tools to research firms and financial professionals at investor.gov/CRS and also provides information tailored to educate retail investors about financial professionals.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our firm offers the below principal investment advisory service to retail investors which we monitor continuously as part of our standard services:

- Portfolio management

The service mentioned above includes the provision of continuous advice to a client or investing the client's account based on his/her particular circumstances. Our firm provides investment discretion for this service. If you invest with us on a discretionary basis, we will buy and sell investments in your accounts without requiring your pre-approval on an ongoing basis until you notify us in writing.

Our firm also offers non-discretionary service, which means that you make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. Our firm monitors client accounts annually for the service listed below:

- Selection of unaffiliated third-party advisors

For additional information including minimum investment amounts, please see www.lbmcinvestmentadvisor.com or adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/108943 for our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (Items 4 and 7 of Part 2A).

Ask your financial professional:

– Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

– What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our fees are assessed quarterly in arrears and are disclosed in our Form ADV Part 1A, Item 5.E. and more fully described in our Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5- Fees and Compensation. Some fees create a potential conflict of interest described below and in more detail in our Firm's Part 2A.

- When our firm charges you asset based fees, more assets in the account will cause you to pay more in fees, and therefore, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of money invested in those accounts.

There are other fees and costs related to our investment advisory services and investments in addition to the principal fees and costs listed above that you will pay directly or indirectly. Examples of the most common fees and costs are internal management fees and expenses of Exchange Traded Funds or mutual funds and trade away fees, and fees charged by unaffiliated third-party advisors. Our firm and our representatives do not receive any portion of these fees.

Additional Information:

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (specifically Item 5-Fees and Compensation) which can be found at www.lbmcinvestmentadvisor.com, adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/108943 or provided at the same time you received this Form CRS.

Ask your financial professional:

– Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some potential conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice, we provide you. Here are examples to help you understand what this means.

- The more assets there are in your investment account(s), the more fees you will pay, and the firm has incentive to encourage investors to increase the assets in their account(s). For instance, rollovers from retirement plan assets such as 401K accounts to an Individual Retirement Account that is advised on by our firm.
- Arrangements with custodians of the investor's assets also present a potential conflict of interest due to services and referrals that are beneficial to us when we recommend clients use them to custody their financial assets.

Ask your financial professional:

– How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Additional information:

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (specifically Item 5-Fees and Compensation) which can be found at www.lbmcinvestmentadvisor.com or adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/108943.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our professionals are compensated based on the amount of assets they service and therefore, can earn higher compensation for investing more of your money.

Do you or your financial professionals have any legal or disciplinary history?

Our firm has no disciplinary history. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

Ask your financial professional:

– As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
